

I've spent many weeks in the hospital; you get good care at fair prices. The whole town, and the visitors should thank our lucky stars we have our good hospital.

Even though it has always been here, it has just recently been completely functional; now you can get every kind of care and stay in Moab--a big plus.